

1. B and P Consonants

pad, bad; pot, bought

Pick a big print for the bedspread.

2. CH [tʃ] and JJ [dʒ] Consonants char, jar, chump, jump

I was on the edge of my seat watching each match of the major tournament.

3. F and V Consonants fan, van; fault, vault; photo, vote

They served a very fresh oven-baked flounderfillet.

4. G and K Consonants

cap, gap; curl, girl; kill, gill

Chris carried the gray crate to the gate.

5. H Consonant

happen, have, home

He said hello to her when he got here.

6. L Consonant

lap, fly, relief; fill, tool, cuddle

Last fall we got a good deal on last minute flights when we flew to California.

7. M Consonant

map, hammer, bottom

My mom might come tomorrow morning

8. N Consonant

nice, can, dinner

Now I don't know when I can come.

9. NG [ŋ] Consonant

sing, think, running

Studying English and practicing speaking is rewarding.

10. R [ɹ] Consonant

run, relax, father

Whenever Rebecca drives her car around New York, she really worries about parking it on the street.

11. S and Z Consonants

sip, zip; see, zebra; bus, buzz

Because it's sunny and he's fair-skinned, he has to wear sunscreen.

12. SH [ʃ] and ZH [ʒ] Consonants ship, measure; dish, decision; wash, mirage

She made the decision to get a beige bed spread with chic striped sheets.

13. T and D Consonants

time, dime; tad, dad; tout, dote

Tome tasted Dad's dark chocolate treats.

14. TH [θ] + [ð] Consonants thin, this; thief, these; birthday, worthy

I thought of using these Lily of the Valleys rather than those thorny roses.

15. W Consonant

whisper, wish, wine

When would you want to see the flower show?

16. Y [j] Consonant

yeah, yard, yield, yogurt

Did you buy the yellow kayak yesterday?